Financial Report

AB 109 Public Safety Realignment Revenue

Elaine Grossman discussed the State Allocations to Shasta County financial report, reminding the group that payments for a given fiscal year are received from August 16th through August 15th of the following year making the most recent payment received the 12th and final payment of last fiscal year. She said page two of the handout includes the actual receipts but compares them to the revenue estimate from the Governor's May revise. She stated the State sales tax came in higher than anticipated making the actual receipts, while still lower than the original budget, much higher than the Governor's May Revise estimates. She explained they had anticipated that actual revenues would be lower than those included in the County budget which would be discussed at a future meeting. Tracie Neal agreed and said they were planning to discuss it at the October CCPEC meeting.

Announcements and General Discussion

Executive Committee Activity

Tracie Neal gave an overview of the CCP Executive Committee activities since June 24, 2020. She said there was no meeting in July and in August they discussed the GEO Reentry Day Reporting Center report, GPS, and realignment dollars. She stated during the August meeting, they voted to issue an RFP early for GPS services. She said after the meeting in August, BI reached out to the Sheriff's Office and Probation to assist with providing GPS equipment that consistently worked well. She said they took ownership of the issue and set the rate of the LOC8 devices to that of the ExacuTrack One devices through the end of the contract.

Presentation – STEP-UP

Robert Bowman introduced Christina Mitchell, a former STEP-UP student. Christina shared her story and talked about her background including growing up with toxic relationships, making poor decisions, and being convicted of two felonies. She shared how STEP-UP supported her and motivated her to succeed. She said she was able to transfer to Chico State and will be the first in her family to graduate. She stated she got to study in South Korea in Fall 2019, where she got to visit various landmarks and the Philippines. She said she is working towards a BBA and an MBA and is on track to start a non-profit for animals in need.

Christina Mitchell shared she was able to visit the town where her mom is from in South Korea. She said her mom met her there and she got to learn about her mom's background. Robert Bowman congratulated her on her progress and thanked the CCP saying that Christina shows what happens when they don't give up on people. He said the community rallied around her to help her raise funds for the trip.

Presentation – PATH

John Stapp introduced himself and thanked the committee for the opportunity to present. He gave an overview of the program. He said they make sure the individuals have income and have them sign a release for a credit check. He stated they use that credit check to help break down barriers by cleaning up any past due charges that could impact housing eligibility requirements prior to applying for housing. He said after placement, they continue to check-in with individuals. He explained the landlords will call PATH Housing staff if they have any issues with the new tenants so they can collaborate on a plan to address those issues. He continued by discussing the classes/workshops they teach which include: budgeting, personal health/safety, and social relationship skills. He said they provide classes online and one-on-one. He gave an overview of the financial supports they provide including rent subsidies and loans. He concluded by sharing the statistics of those they have helped.

Presentation – SOR

Carol Ulloa gave an overview on the SOR Program. She said they use an evidence-based assessment tool (the Virginia Pretrial Risk Assessment aka VPRAI) to identify the level of risk to fail to appear. She said if the offender scores as low risk and is put on SOR, Probation staff will check in with them and make sure they get to court. She said for those who score as moderate risk, GPS is recommended, and the contact with probation is increased. She said individuals pending charges for domestic violence or stalking, those who are currently on probation supervision or parole, and those with more than three FTA's on felony charges within three years are not eligible/appropriate to be placed on the program. She shared the number of offenders assigned to the program has recently been lower than in the past so they've reduced staff to include one Probation Officer and two Probation Assistants. She said SOR is mainly for accountability for attending court and reducing failure to appears, rather than rehabilitation, but they do make referrals to treatment where possible. She said the Probation Assistants have a Mental Health questionnaire, which gives them a better understanding of who is getting booked. Tracie Neal explained they developed the Mental Health survey with HHSA to understand the population of those being booked. She said the next step is connecting the individuals with services. She stated they can bring data to a future meeting.

Input for next agenda

Michael Burke said he would like to share information on their Hotline for Hope as well as their Kindergarten Launch Program.

Brian Muir recommended discussing what to do if there is a drop in revenues for the next fiscal year when they have their financial discussion next month.

Meeting Schedules

Tracie Neal said the next meeting for this group is not yet scheduled, and the next CCPEC meeting is scheduled for October 21, 2020. She stated they would be discussing the budget, have a presentation from the District Attorney, and update the group on Proposition 47 grant funded program. The meeting schedule would be discussed and approved at the November meeting.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

In Shasta County, GEO Reentry Services provides comprehensive treatment programs tailored to meet individual participant's risk and needs. At the foundation of our treatment is evidence-based programming designed to address criminogenic needs as identified through the assessment process. The program model includes Cognitive Behavioral Treatment (CBT), Thinking for a Change (T4C), employment readiness and assistance, parenting classes, life skills, anger management, substance abuse treatment, gender-responsive classes, education services, and Moral Reconciliation Therapy® (MRT). Programming is delivered through group and individual sessions. With the onset of COVID-19, the DRC continued to deliver in-person services in accordance with CDC guidelines and implemented virtual programming to help keep participants accountable.

The following reflects cumulative Q3 and Q4 (July 1, 2020–December 31, 2020) data for the Shasta County Day Reporting Center (DRC) in California.

EMPLOYMENT GAINS

A goal of the DRC is to assist participants with securing employment. During the reporting period, the percentage of participants employed during programming more than doubled.

DISCHARGE RESULTS

During the reporting period, the Shasta County DRC had a total of 78 program discharges with a 26% decrease in non-completions from Q3 to Q4.

Q3 TOTAL DISCHARGES: 31

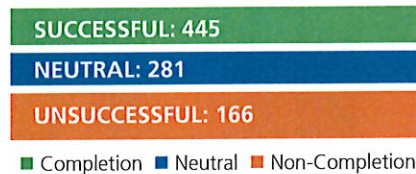

Q4 TOTAL DISCHARGES: 47

- Completion: Includes successful and completion discharges
- Neutral: Includes agency-ordered terminations, external transfers, and any participant deaths
- Non-Completion: Includes absconds, jail termination, and unsuccessful discharges

AVERAGE PARTICIPATION LENGTH

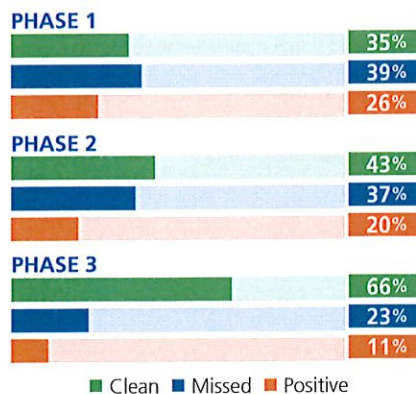

Below is the average number of participation days based on discharge category.

- Completion ■ Neutral ■ Non-Completion

DRUG TESTING RESULTS

Each DRC participant is required to test weekly for illicit substances. During the reporting period, the percentage of clean tests increased as participants progressed through the program. Below is a breakdown of the drug screen results by phase for the DRC population.

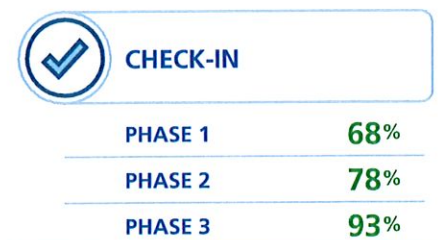

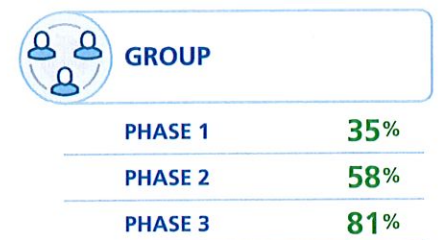

- Clean ■ Missed ■ Positive

SERVICES ATTENDANCE

Below is a breakdown of the average service attendance by phase for the DRC population. During the reporting period, the service attendance percentages significantly increased as participants progressed through the program.

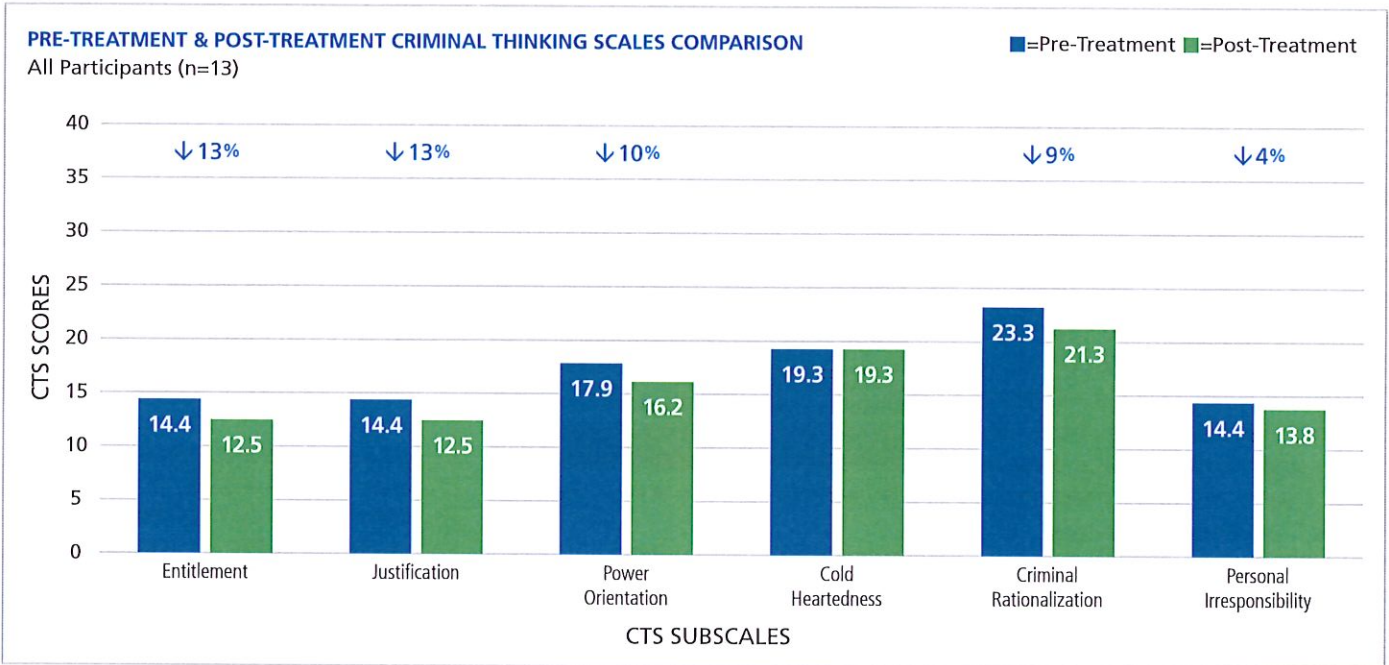

CRIMINAL THINKING ASSESSMENT SCORES

Criminal thinking domains, such as antisocial cognitions and antisocial attitudes, are frequent targets for change in correctional treatment, and are described in current theories of criminal behavior.¹ The research on “What Works” to reduce recidivism indicates that antisocial cognition and antisocial attitudes (criminal thinking) are among the top three risk factors as drivers of recidivism. The Texas Christian University Criminal Thinking Scales (CTS), a reliable and validated instrument, measures the effect of GEO’s programming on antisocial cognition and attitudes.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS

The evaluators analyzed the pre-treatment and post-treatment CTS scores for 13 individuals, regardless of risk at intake, who participated in programming at the Shasta County DRC between July 1, 2020 and December 31, 2020. The average treatment episode for the participants was 132 days. The figure below illustrates that the participants had a decrease in criminal thinking, averaging an 8% reduction (1.4 points) across all six scales. It is important to note that although Cold Heartedness did not change, this scale is the least likely to be impacted by criminal thinking, as this reflects attributes associated with long-standing personality traits.

CRIMINAL THINKING SCALES

ELEMENTS	DESCRIPTION
ENTITLEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focuses on a sense of ownership and privilege. • High scores are associated with the offender’s belief that the world “owes them” and they deserve special consideration.
JUSTIFICATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refers to patterns of thought that minimize the seriousness of antisocial acts and by justifying actions based on external circumstances. • High scores may be associated with perceived social injustice.
POWER ORIENTATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Measures the need of power and control. • High scores are associated with higher levels of aggression and controlling behaviors.
COLD HEARTEDNESS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High scores reflect a lack of emotional involvement.
CRIMINAL RATIONALIZATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High scores on this scale are associated with negative attitude towards the law and authority figures.
PERSONAL IRRESPONSIBILITY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assesses the degree to which an offender is willing to accept ownership for criminal actions. • Therefore, high scores are associated with non-acceptance of criminal actions and often blaming others.

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING: 530-225-5144 (24 hours)

We believe that children should be:

Safe, healthy, in school, out of trouble, have a permanent home, and have the best chance to be productive citizens.

Safety: Children have a right to be safe and parented with dignity in their own home, in kinship care, or in the foster care system.

Health: Children need to be healthy in mind and body. They require comprehensive medical, dental, and mental health care. They need to grow up in an environment of normalcy.

Education: Children need to be successful in school, be able to graduate, and learn the skills needed in adulthood.

Out of trouble: Youth need to be raised with tolerance and care to teach them to avoid delinquency, substance abuse or unwanted pregnancy.

Permanence: Youth need to return to family or to be placed in guardianship or adoptions in as timely a manner as possible.

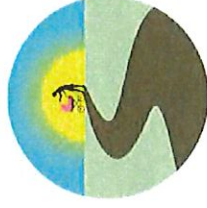

A future: Youth who leave foster care when they turn 18 should have a place to live, a job and a chance to go to college.
