Death certificates can be obtained through your funeral home. For additional certificates, contact the Shasta County Recorder's Office. The Coroner's Office does not give out death certificates.

The Shasta County Board of Supervisors has instituted a $100.00 fee for the removal and transportation of your loved ones remains. This fee can be paid to the Shasta County Coroner's Office. A morgue storage fee may be applied per day if a release has not been signed by the time the examination is complete.
